

Witnessing Jesus

Modern methods of evangelism in light of Jesus' gospel conversations

The last time you talked to a stranger about Jesus...

How did you feel?

The “Four Spiritual Laws”

1. God loves you and offers a wonderful plan for your life.
2. All of us sin and our sin has separated us from God.
3. Jesus Christ is God’s only provision for our sin....
4. We must individually receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord; then we can know and experience God's love and plan for our lives....

Listen

to people.

Listen

to the Holy Spirit.

“The first duty of love
is to listen.”

– Paul Tillich (as cited in Nesson, C. 2015, p.15)

Whenever men came to the Lord in the Gospels, He spoke a suitable word to them. This is amazing! The Lord did not speak to the Samaritan woman about the truth of regeneration. Neither did He speak to Nicodemus about the living water ... How fitting! To those who had never followed Him, He issued a calling. To those who wanted to follow Him, He spoke of bearing the cross. To those who volunteered, He spoke of counting the cost. To those who were hesitant to follow, He spoke of letting the dead bury the dead. The Lord has a suitable word for everyone, because He knows everyone.

Our Lord is far ahead of us in dealing with men. We are following Him only from a distance. Although we are following at a distance, we still have to follow; the direction has to be the same. May the Lord be merciful to us so that we may learn to know men as He does.
